

Analyst (m/f/x) Real Estate Investment Banking M&A, financing and capital markets

ACXIT, since July 2022 part of global full-service investment bank Stifel, is a leading international corporate finance and financial advisory firm for mid-market clients and entrepreneurs in Europe and beyond. Since 1999, we offer our clients comprehensive corporate finance advisory services including M&A and capital markets advisory as well as restructuring, debt and strategic advisory.

Our Real Estate Practice provides comprehensive corporate finance advisory services in the real estate sector, including M&A and Debt Advisory as well as Capital Markets Advisory. By combining our in-depth investment banking know-how with our unique real estate expertise, we offer our clients independent best practice solutions across the full range of our investment banking services.

We are looking for full-time Analysts (m/f/x) for a Real Estate Investment Banking role for M&A, financing and capital markets.

What you will do

- › Your tasks will include creating financial models, valuation analysis, drafting marketing documents and conducting company and market research
- › Preparation of market and competitive analyses and industry screenings for the identification of potential acquisition targets/buyers
- › Preparation of company presentations, pitch books and investment proposals
- › You will manage real estate transactions, covering assets, platforms and financing assignments.

What we expect

- › You hold a Bachelor's or Master's degree in business administration or economics with outstanding academic results
- › You have strong analytical capabilities, strong skills in valuation methodologies, and a solid understanding of accounting principles
- › You have relevant practical experience in at least corporate finance/M&A or real estate
- › You are team-oriented, motivated, committed, proactive and capable to work independently
- › You are business-fluent in both German and English and proficient in MS Office

What we offer

- › We offer an excellent working climate in a highly dynamic team with performance-based compensation in line with market standards
- › You will work in focused teams, benefiting from in-depth project involvement and international client exposure from project sourcing to transaction execution
- › Frankfurt based position in a modern office space
- › Excellent development opportunities
